

Perpombellar Productions
phone: 912-897-6439/cell: 912-655-5617

Contact: Jody Schiesser
email: flicker@perpombellar.com

SAVANNAH IS BIG IN CHINA!

Local Filmmakers Maintain Winning Streak Across The Globe

In December of 2007, THE STREET CLEANER, a short film shot in Savannah, Georgia, played at the New Beijing International Film Festival. THE STREET CLEANER is a 34 minute thriller produced by Savannah-based Perpombellar Productions. The movie follows a heroin-addicted young prostitute as she is abducted and held prisoner by a man with a mysterious past. THE STREET CLEANER's screening in Beijing is the latest in a series of successes for this Georgia team.

AWARDS IN 2007:

Best Short Film - Audience Choice
Fort Lauderdale International Film Festival

"Mason-Dixon Award" for Outstanding Georgia Filmmakers
Dixie Film Festival in Athens, Georgia

Best Local Short
Atlanta Underground Film Festival

Best Film - Jury Award
Best Film - Audience Choice
Best Topic - Audience Choice
Coligny "Shorts At The Beach" Festival in Hilton Head, South Carolina

OFFICIAL SELECTIONS:

New Beijing International Film Festival
Boston Film Festival
Charlotte Film Festival
Macon Film Festival – Feb. 2008
Beaufort Film Festival – Mar. 2008

Recent attention has focused on Georgia's dry spell of big-budget Hollywood productions and the challenges of competing with other states' large tax-incentives. However, Perpombellar wants the community to know there are thriving Georgia-based production companies committed to shooting locally, with local talent, and local crews.

For up-to-date information, the trailer, production stills, and news of a 2008 Savannah premiere, please visit: TheStreetCleanerMovie.com.

Watch for Perpombellar Production's upcoming full-length feature film
TRUMPET MY RETURN
already in preproduction... in Savannah!